George R. Gianniny, Jr.

George Randolph Gianniny, Jr., 75, formerly of Scottsville, died Monday, October 29, 2012 at The Laurels of Willow Creek in Midlothian, Virginia.

He was born on August 24, 1937 in Nelson County, a son of the late George Randolph and Frances (Martin) Gianniny.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a sister, Shirley G. Hutcherson; and two brothers, James V. Gianniny and Henry Lee Gianniny.

Mr. Gianniny was a retired carpenter, having worked for over 30 years for Thacker Construction in Charlottesville. He was a member of the Scottsville United Methodist Church. He enjoyed going to auction sales, and collecting antiques, farm equipment, and old coins and documents. He enjoyed hunting, gardening, and refinishing antique furniture.

Survivors include three sisters, Martha G. Thompson and husband, Bill of Chesterfield, Nancy G. Rucker of Midlothian, and Aleane G. Suddarth and husband, James of Chesterfield; and a number of nieces, nephews, and extended family and friends.

A funeral service will be conducted at 2:00 PM, Friday, November 2, 2012 at Thacker Brothers Funeral Home in Scottsville. Interment will follow in the Scottsville Cemetery.

The family will receive friends from 7:00 until 8:00 PM on Thursday evening, November 1, 2012 at the funeral home.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society, Charlottesville Chapter, 1445 Rio Road East. Charlottesville, VA 22901.
